COVID-19 Vaccination
Santa Clara County Providers

Providers are frequently updating eligibility criteria, based on capacity and available vaccine. Please confirm current eligibility with the healthcare provider.

Under the County’s “no wrong door” policy, all providers below (with the exception of the VA) are able to vaccinate eligible patients regardless of their healthcare provider or insurance.

Bay Area Community Health
- Healthcare Workers
- People ages 65+
- Food and Agriculture Workers
- Emergency Services workers
- Education/Childcare workers
- Those who have a complex health condition (click for more info)
- Those experiencing homelessness
- People who live in Congregate Residential settings
- People who work in Public Transportation setting

County of Santa Clara Health System
- People aged 65 or above who live or work in Santa Clara County
- Residents of long-term care facilities in Santa Clara County
- People who live or work in Santa Clara County and are at risk of exposure to COVID-19 through their work in: Healthcare; Education and Childcare; Emergency Services; Food and Agriculture
- County residents ages 16-64 with a qualifying severe health condition, disability, or illness

El Camino Health
- People aged 65 or above who live in Santa Clara County
- Individuals who reside in a high-risk congregate setting in Santa Clara County
- Individuals in Santa Clara County who are at highest risk for extreme complications from COVID-19 due to specific health conditions
- Individuals in Santa Clara County who are at high-risk for extreme complications from COVID-19 due to a severe mental or physical disability
- People who live or work in Santa Clara County and are at risk of exposure to COVID-19 through their work in: Healthcare; or Education and Childcare; or Emergency Services; or Food and Agriculture; or Public Transit

Kaiser Permanente
- People 65 and older,
- Those 16 to 64 who are at high risk for severe COVID-19 due to underlying medical conditions
- People who live or work in residential group settings, and those who work in: Education and childcare; Food and agriculture; Emergency services; Health care and long-term care; Public transit, airports, and commercial airlines

Levi’s Stadium
- People aged 65 or above who live or work in Santa Clara County
- Residents of long-term care facilities in Santa Clara County
- People who live or work in Santa Clara County and are at risk of exposure to COVID-19 through their work in: Healthcare; Education and Childcare; Emergency Services; Food and Agriculture
- County residents ages 16-64 with a qualifying severe health condition, disability, or illness

Stanford Health Care (SHC)
- Health care workers
- Patients who are aged 65 or older
- Individuals who are aged 18-64 with severe health conditions
- Individuals who work or reside in high-risk congregate settings-
- Persons experiencing homelessness who may move to congregate settings at short notice
- Emergency services workers
- Food or agriculture workers
- Education or childcare workers (includes staff and any other workers involved in child and/or student care)
- Public transit, airports, and commercial airlines workers

Sutter Health / Palo Alto Medical Foundation (PAMF)
(Sutter patients can schedule an appointment online or call (844) 987-6115)
- Patients age 65 and older.
- Essential workers: Agriculture and food, education and childcare, emergency services and public transit/airport and commercial airlines.
- Healthcare workers (verification required).
- People age 16-64 with severe health conditions or disabilities.
- Individuals who reside or work in congregate residential settings, including those experiencing homelessness.

VA Palo Alto
Sign up for COVID vaccine eligibility updates at the VA or call 650-615-6000 to secure an appointment
- Currently vaccinating all enrolled Veterans who wish to receive the vaccine.

VA Palo Alto - Menlo Park
Sign up for COVID vaccine eligibility updates at the VA or call 650-615-6000 to secure an appointment
- Currently vaccinating all enrolled Veterans who wish to receive the vaccine.